

Food Processing Child Care Pilot

- a key retention and recruitment strategy

Good child care is critical to working women

More than any other province, Alberta women are not working, because child care is an issue *

AFPA has an industry solution:

- Become our partner in establishing child care services & attracting new workers
- We will assist in the establishment of child care services for food processors

We want to hear from you!

We want to establish 2 pilot test sites as models for a long term labour market strategy
